

APR 22 1963

Approved For Release 2005/01/05 : CIA-RDP75-00149R000700280018-9

Pw 2 Q.Q. BURKE
X Pw 2 H. SMITH
Qr.
x Qq 2 90 (C586U)

Two New Directors

Admiral Arleigh A. Burke (USN-ret.) and General Frederick H. Smith Jr. (USAF-ret.) yesterday were elected as new directors of Federal Services Finance Corp., Washington.

Burke retired from the Navy in 1961 after six years as Chief of Naval Operations and 42 years of naval service. He is a director of numerous business organizations, including the First National Bank of Washington and Capitol Radio Engineering Institute, Washington. He is the director of the Center for Strategic Studies, Georgetown University.

Gen. Smith Adm. Burke

Smith retired in 1962 as Vice Chief of Staff of the U. S. Air Force and is a vice president of Republic Aviation Corp.